MEMORANDUM

TO: U.S. District Court Judge
(To be assigned)

RE: Ronald Johnson
Dkt. No: 6:01CR10019-001
Transfer of Jurisdiction

CR05-29

On March 14, 2002, Ronald Johnson appeared in the United States District Court, Western District of Virginia, to be sentenced for prepare or aid in the abet in the preparation of fraudulent tax returns. He was committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of forty-six months followed by a term of three years' supervised release. Special conditions require Mr. Johnson to participate in a substance abuse program as directed by the probation officer. Ronald Johnson must also participate in a program of mental health treatment, as directed by the probation office. This defendant is also subject to financial disclosure and he can not incur any new credit charges without prior approval of the probation office. The Court ordered Mr. Johnson make restitution to the Internal Revenue Service, in the amount of $20,521.80.

Mr. Johnson was released from federal prison, on February 10, 2005, to begin supervised release. His term of supervision is scheduled to terminate on February 9, 2008.

Ronald Johnson has a significant arrest and conviction history. He has approximately sixty-five arrests in his criminal history. Mr. Johnson's background indicates he is assaultive in nature; and, he requires mental health treatment.
